Glossary:Enterprise - SBS

Statistics Explained

An enterprise is the smallest combination of legal units that is an organisational unit producing goods or services, which benefits from a certain degree of autonomy in decision-making, especially for the allocation of its current resources. An enterprise carries out one or more activities at one or more locations. An enterprise may be a sole legal unit.

Related concepts

- Local unit
- Structural business statistics

Statistical data

• Structural business statistics overview